

Quad City Physical Therapy and Spine is pleased to announce Beth Shelly PT, BCIA-PMDB
as the recipient of the 2007 Elizabeth Noble Award

This prestigious award is presented by the American Physical Therapy Association's Section on Women's Health for leadership and dedication to their mission.

Beth has been a women's health specialist for 17 years and has been practicing in the Quad Cities since 2000. She joined the team of specialists at Quad City Physical Therapy and Spine in 2005.

Beth lectures throughout the United States, for the APTA, on the topics of Obstetrics and Gynecological Physical Therapy. She has published many chapters and numerous articles.

Her practice consists of pelvic, vaginal and rectal pain, urinary and fecal incontinence, pelvic organ prolapse, lymphedema and pain with pregnancy. Beth can be reached at Quad City Physical Therapy and Spine in Davenport 563-359-3799.